

PROGRAMME „Train-The-Trainer Workshop: Multiplying Civic Competences“ .

October 17. – 21. 2016, Kiev

Location: Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv -

The German Law Center of the Faculty of Law

Day 1 Monday

Arrival

02:00 PM – 06.00 PM

Welcome

(Introduction to the programme, networking concept, targets)

Day 2 Tuesday

09:00 AM – 06.00 PM

Module 1:

‘Implicit and explicit ,civic learning‘ within non-formal education’
(introduction and frame)

- the significant role of the intertwinement of history, traditions and self-image of democratic societies with democratic learning processes
- clarifying different (inter)national understandings and requirements of ‘civic learning’ e.g. via documents, funding criteria etc.
- synergy effects of international exchange between educational institutions applied by the networking concept in the following 4 days

Module 2:

‘What is ‘civic learning’ about?’
(sensitization)

- the vital aspect of public involvement in democratic processes for social cohabitation
- the interrelation of institutionalized politics and democratization of society being dependent on dialogue
- the acquisition of democratic key competences for a more democratic society

Module 3:

‘Which principles are fundamental to the support of civic education/learning processes?’
(localization)

- good judgement and critical faculties as essentials for civic learning
- conditions of civic thought and action e.g. basic rights, distribution of power
- civic participation as driving force of civic education and its constituting principles

Day 3 Wednesday

09:00 AM – 01:00 PM

02:00 PM – 06:00 PM

Cultural Program in Kiev

Day 4 Thursday

09:00 AM – 06:00 PM

Module 4:

'What are ,democratic competences' and how can their multiplying function be displayed?'

(deepening)

- the interaction of democratic with individual and social competences and the exemplary nature of the concept for many fields of education
- the components of democratic competences (justice, differentiation, historical classification, development of alternative strategies, civic participation, reflection)

Module 5:

'Are there methods and instruments in order to convey democratic competences?'

(methodological reflection)

- introduction to methods and instruments fostering democratic competences

Day 5 Friday

08:00 AM – 12:00 AM

- Departure -

Module 6:

'What is the impact of the competence dimensions above on practical work and are there further qualifying opportunities?'

(reflection and perspectives)

- competences tying up with available knowledge, self-image and the attitude towards them
- selection of funding programmes/ opportunities of cooperation to foster qualification
- free manuals in addition to/as a basis for trainings